

JID-Cue cards

Down here are some cue-cards that can be used to help in a conversation with other people, the mission is to get all the info down here, before you ask someone for a JID. And, once you have had a conversation about these things, and maybe even more, maybe you'll get the JID from the other person :P

Please, for your own safety and the safety of our other users, have these conversations in the public channels. That way, we can all keep an eye out for each other, other people can join in too, and we'll have way more fun :P
